

Lucrecia Offers Exclusive Concert on Mega TV

Miami, FL--(HISPANIC PR WIRE)--June 22, 2010--This Thursday, June 22nd, will be a night to remember! As part of the successful music series "Mega Especiales", Mega TV Channel 22 will broadcast an exclusive and fun-filled concert celebrating the art of Cuban born singer songwriter Lucrecia. The popular performer whose boundless talent, charisma and music will be on hand for fans and viewers alike to enjoy, will be featured only on Mega TV.

Famed "Merrick Park," the exclusive shopping enclave in fashionable Coral Gables, serves as the backdrop to this concert event, which will benefit the "Voices for Children" foundation. Lucrecia's exquisite selection of songs, including: "La noche de la Iguana", "La Gloria eres tu", "Mi delirio", and "Juan Tanamera," will take viewers through a fantastic musical journey all over Latin America.

Lucrecia's musical range has attracted many in the industry to label her voice and style as supreme. The popular entertainer has received many accolades throughout her career, especially for her performance in "Balseros", a production that was near and dear to the heart of this Cuban exile who left the island in search of freedom in America.

During this special Mega TV concert event, Lucrecia will share intimate details about her life, her career, her music, her family, as well as a stroll down memory lane in her beloved Cuba.

This Mega Especiales is hosted by renowned Latin personality and MegaTV hostess, Rashel Diaz. Do not miss it, brought to you only by Mega TV, the leader in entertainment television in Miami
